Drawings

- 1. The drawings are objected to because it appears that the lead lines from the reference characters 35 and 36 in figure 1 point to the wrong element. The character 35 does not appear to point to stitches as described in the specification, and the character 36 points to inner tube 70.
- 2. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the insert bead (33) adapted to push against the tire bead as set forth in claims 1 and 16 must be shown or the feature canceled from the claims.

No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

3. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because of the use of the term "said."

Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

4. The specification is objected to as failing to provide proper antecedent basis for the claimed subject matter. The term "insert valve location" is not described in the specification.

See 37 CFR 1.75(d)(1) and MPEP § 608.01(o).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

- 5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:
 The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
- 6. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In line 10 the "insert valve location" lacks antecedent basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
- 8. Claims 1, 2, 12, and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Cho.

Cho teaches a beadlock including an insert casing shown generally at 3, 4, 5, 6, and 9, a bead spacer 7, 16, an insert bead 11 which contacts the tire bead, and an insert valve.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

- 9. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:
 - (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.
- 10. Claims 3-8, 10, 13, and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Cho.

Cho meets all of the limitations of claims 1, 2, and 12 above, but the bead spacer is not made of a woven fabric or a rectangular strip.

To use a woven material or a polyester fabric for the bead spacer would have been obvious art because such a material could easily form the chamber (C) and those of ordinary skill in the art could readily choose suitable materials for the bead spacer in order to make the spacer lighter, less expensive, etc.

The shape of the bead spacer, such as a rectangle, has been disclosed as critical, and therefore is considered to be an obvious mechanical expedient.

Allowable Subject Matter

11. Claims 9, 11, and 15 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

12. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The references show other bead spacers.
